DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Specification

2. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or
REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.

Art Unit: 3727

- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Section headings are in bold, underlined, or both.

Appropriate correction is required.

35 USC § 112, 6th Paragraph

4. Claims 1, 5, 6, and 7 are written in "means plus function" form and since they meet the analysis set forth in MPEP 2181, the Examiner assumes that applicant wishes to invoke 35 USC § 112, paragraph 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 2, 7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by DeVincenzi (6,173,451). DeVincenzi discloses a compartmentalized band comprising a first material (11) stretchable along its length (col. 3 line 10) and forming an entire wristband, a second material (12) of stretchable length (col. 3 line 17) overlying at least a portion of the band, sewing action for securing the second material to the first material

(col. 4 line 38) at a plurality of distinct points, thereby dividing the band into compartments (23) with stretchable overlays, and a plurality of implements of use – golf tees (13) – within the compartments (see esp. figure 2).

7. Claims 1, 2, 7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Turner, Jr. et al. (4,733,808). Turner, Jr. et al. discloses a compartmentalized band comprising a first material (19) stretchable along its length (col. 2 line 33) and forming a portion of a wristband, a second material (14) of stretchable length (col. 2 line 24) overlying at least a portion of the band, sewing action for securing the second material to the first material (col. 2 line 35) at a plurality of distinct points, thereby dividing the band into compartments (14 & 20) with stretchable overlays, and a plurality of implements of use – bird calls (13) – within the compartments (see esp. figure 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 3 - 6 and 9 - 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either DeVincenzi or Turner, Jr. et al. in view of Orndorff (635,145). DeVincenzi and Turner, Jr. et al. both disclose the claimed invention except for the second material being of length to overlie the entire length of the first material or band. Orndorff, however, teaches a compartmented wristband for carrying a plurality of implements of use – ammunition cartridges (C) - where the second material is of length to overlie the entire first material or band (see esp. figure 3). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify DeVincenzi or Turner, Jr. et al. by making the band in such a way that the second material was of length to overlie the entire band, as taught by Orndorff, in order for the user to carry more implements of use upon the wristband, allowing a larger variety or quantity in time of need.

10. Regarding the size limitations set forth in claims 3, 4, and 5, both DeVincenzi and Turner, Jr. et al. in view of Orndorff disclose the claimed invention except for the band having a 3-inch width, overlays of $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch width, and compartments of $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch width. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify the sizes of both DeVincenzi and Turner, Jr. et al. in view of Orndorff accordingly, since such a modification would have involved a mere change in the size of a component. A change in size is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art. In re Rose, 105 USPQ 237 (CCPA 1955).

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art cited relates to similar compartmented bands.
